Dear Friends,
Thank you!

Monza is a special race and you would have deserved to have seen Fernando on the top step of the podium with Felipe alongside him.

Our drivers put on a great show on a track where we expected to be competitive and where, honestly, I hoped that our main rival would be less so.

Again today, I feel I must say that to have scraped together more than we did would have been difficult not to say impossible, and therefore we have to congratulate our opponents, but the message is plain and simple. We will not give up until the very end and we will be poised and ready to benefit from the slightest moment of uncertainty or mistake.

You painted the beautiful Monza Park red and I thank you for it. All of us, Fernando on the podium and us in the pit lane, were all struck with emotion at seeing the main straight on the circuit heaving with fans, which is a spectacle unique to Monza, a spectacle that only you can provide.

It was also good to see the stadium full on Wednesday and the square completely packed out in Monza. You are truly unique!

Now, we are preparing for Singapore, where we should find out if the car has improved even at tracks which are less favourable for us, but I repeat, there is no thought of surrender, it is not in our nature.

Forza Ferrari!
