Dear Friends,

Our first thoughts after this weekend are with Maria de Villota and as Fernando said, our prayers are for her and her family.

The second thought goes to the driver who set a new record for the number of points scored in Formula 1. The number is 1571 and the driver to whom I am referring is Fernando, who drove another attacking race, without any let up, featuring a really nice passing move on Hulkenberg. I think that no other driver deserves this recognition more than him. Felipe had a perfect weekend and did a super qualifying, but then in the race he made a costly mistake at the entrance to the pit lane, which saw him lose at least four places, which is a real shame.

The third thought is with the team, especially the mechanics, who set a new record of 1.95 seconds from stop to green light at Fernando's first stop! Brilliant!

We are still second in both championships, but Mercedes and Lotus are proving to be quicker to react than us when it comes to adapting to the tyres.

It won't be easy to hang on to those positions, but we will fight tooth and nail to keep them, because as you know we are not a team that gives up, because it's in our blood and we cannot disappoint those, who like you, support us twelve months of the year.

Forza Ferrari!
